Company Overview

Elline Trans Logistics Pvt Ltd. is one of the leading logistics services providers, both, in India. Across its years of operation, the company has made a mark for its reliable services.

Elline Trans Logistics Pvt Ltd. is a result of the merging of the finest minds in the logistics industry. It is a collaboration of two companies, Elite Roadways Pvt. Ltd. and Moonline Express Cargo Pvt. Ltd. owned by our directors, Mr. Sunil Goyal and Mr. Naresh Agarwal, respectively.

Elline Trans Logistics Pvt Ltd. is registered in Mumbai, Maharashtra. Hailing from humble beginnings, the organization has spanned its foothold to an elaborate range of logistics and supply chain solutions. Currently, Elline Trans Logistics is the preferred vendor for the end-to-end logistics requirements of its clients. This covers land transportation, domestic logistics, and rail logistics.

At ETL, we are driven by attention to detail which separately makes us the specialists in each of the segregated types of logistics services. Our impeccable road transportation services are characterized by our own pickup trucks, both medium and large-sized. Each of our pickup trucks is fitted with a GPS tracker and our drivers are well-trained.

Freight transportation via rail is characterized by utmost safety when ETL does it for you. We only use our own leased wagon in express trains for the purpose, keeping the key to the wagon with us.

ETL excels in Air transport because we use complex tools to ensure that you access the best deals each time over in the terms of airfare. Our 24/7 dedicated staff will be available at airports whenever deliveries come in or freight is loaded.

Our correct and commercially viable solutions presented when needed the most have helped us earn our clients' trust. Each of our partnerships with the clients is based on mutual trust. We value our clients above all else and build long-term partnerships with them, by forwarding mutually beneficial proposals.

The top among our product and service offerings include comprehensive transport solutions from all major ports and airports in India to worldwide destinations. Our 100% personalized value-added solutions never fail to find our clients' preferences. The solutions are categorized under vendor management, managing custom issues, documentation, warehousing, distribution, and transportation solutions including delivery and pickup. This makes supply chain processes at your organization impeccable.
